PROGRESSIVE POETRY SOCIAL.

Complimentary to Messrs. Ed and Charlie Stephens, brothers of the host. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephens entertained at a "Progressive Poetry" social on last Thursday evening. Fourteen couples occupied the different tables arranged for their reception, which were supplied with "subjects" as a guide to their poetic sentiments. Cards bearing the name of each of the players, and to which was attached a bunch of violets tied with ribbon of the same hue, designated their proper places at the tables, and proved also pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The commingling of poetic thought, though quite beyond one's ability to describe or reproduce, justly merited the praise and laughter it received. Altogether the merry participants seemed never to have enjoyed themselves more. Delicate refreshments were served, while "music enchanting" filled the evening hours. As a pleasant reminder of the occasion to "the absent one," we recall "The Old Maid's Wish." This she might return to Santiago with Where, if not contented, she could easily "skip" (Back to the United States we suppose. Perhaps to one of her Hickman beaux. Who, if not "up to date" on Spanish lingo, is just as "cute" she would have you know. (Another less wrote) "Though 'marriage a failure' may be, I am willing to try it with you, and—see.

"To be your sweetheart" I've promised, my dear,
And your lovely life, "Rip" will be mine to cheer,
So that you fate, unlike that of "Jones," Will be sunshine and happiness rather than groans;
And though "Funny Dreams" o'er your slumber play,
You'll awake to find mother-in-law far away.
Yes, dearest "Rip," my (one) aim in life is to be your Spanish American wife. Where on Cuba's fair shore, hand in hand, we'll rove,
And live together, a life of "Love."

THE DEACON.

At City Hall—To-Night.

The Union City Dramatic Company will occupy the boards at City Hall, to-night, presenting the beautiful play, The Deacon. The company is composed of some of the best talent and best society young people of Union City, and their performance is praised very highly by the Union City papers. We feel warranted in saying that our people will be given a pleasant evening, and we therefore, urge all to see it.

Mr. F. S. Moore, a promising young attorney from Illinois, has located in Hickman, for the practice of his profession. He is highly endorsed.

THE HUN OF INDUSTRY.

WEST HICKMAN BOOM, ELEVATOR, HANDLE FACTORY, ETC.

Editor Hickman Courier:

No written description of West Hickman have I ever seen, of the several improvements and enterprises we have now. If you can bear with me and allow me a little space in your valuable paper, I would like to say a few words, to say, that we have the railroad elevator, turn-table, fresh river breeze, and we grow flowers in our own gardens.

Permit me to say that I appreciate the significance of being one of the West Hickman citizens, and I can safely say, "Our souls are stirred with a new life." The life of a grander day is falling upon us; we are thrilled with the consciousness of a growing power and prosperity, though we have no phosphate property, but we have the hum of industry. We have in West Hickman, five classes of people, as follows: Quality, Bob Quality, Commonality, Rubbish and Trash. We are a temperate people except at Xmas times.

We have a representative in the high school, but none in the council, but we are going to do our best to have our [in the next city election. If we succeed, we will then look for good side walks. You can find nearly anything here except vacant houses. Every house is occupied, a great many of them having two families in them, and I think they are paying the rent, or they would have to move, as the houses belong to men who are very good collectors. Why don't you moneyed fellows who have vacation in West Hickman build on them?

The Hickman Handle Company is here to stay, and we have evidence that before long we will have a Crate Factory that will work about thirty men under the shed.

There are a great many people who will be surprised to know the amount of money W. G. Liggett, President of the Hickman Handle Company, pays out to the laboring class of Hickman and surrounding country. He pays out for labor under the shed, $35 per day; for timber in the log, $40 per day; and under expenses, $10 per day. He turns out 10,000 handles per day; he will be cut from this about $50 per day for hoop material. Besides this, extensive business in West Hickman, Mr. Liggett is in the timber business at Paducah, Tenn., Columbia, Tenn., Franklin, Tenn., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Huntsville, Ala. You can see that this enterprise is a great advantage to the working class of the Middle States. He is President of the J. H. Co., the Tennessee Lumber Co., and the Gulf Timber Co., of Columbia, Tenn.

I have shown you the business qualities of W. G. Liggett, now I will please, are you, gladly do I speak of him as a man. No written memorial can indicate the strong hold he has on the men he has employed, nor portray that peerless personality which gives him his marvelous power among his men. He has a matchless grace of soul that makes him an unending winner of hearts. His translucent mind pulsates with the light of truth. When meeting with the fair sex of the different States and places, his command of language is as boundless as the realm of thought; his ideas as beautiful as pictures in the sky, and his pathos as deep as the well of tears. He moves upon these souls as the divine spirit upon the waters, either lulling them into storms of enthusiasm, or stilling them to restful quiet of sympathy.

A TENNESSEE HAZEL.

THE SALT CURE.

The efficiency of common salt in stimulating heart action was demonstrated in a remarkable manner by Dr. W. Z. Kamler in Hamilton, Ohio, on Sunday. Dr. Kamler was called to attend Marcus Sauer, 62 years old, who has been long a sufferer from dropsy. He found the patient apparently dead. All symptoms immediately following dissolution, cold extremities, absence of respiration, heart action and pulse were manifest.

Dr. Kamler resolved to try the salt solution as a final resort. At 1:37 p.m. he injected a quantity of warm water, containing 25 per cent of salt in the left arm. In twenty seconds there were signs of a pulse and it was plain that circulation was being restored. In 25 minutes a second hypodermic was administered, this time in the branch of the brachial artery, in the upper left arm in 20 minutes from the second injection respiration was full and rhythmic. Color returned to the patient's face and he recovered consciousness and asked for food. Nourishment in the form of broth was administered and soon after Mr. Sauer took a drink of water, one of the best symptoms of returned functional activity. Mr. Sauer is improving.

Arbuckles' famous Roasted Coffee

The low price at which Arbuckles' famous roasted coffee can be sold is made possible by its enormous sale. It should not be classed with the inferior imitations sold at a cost a pound less than Arbuckles'. It has a quality entirely superior to these imitations and makes many more cups of coffee to the pound. No other firm in the world can buy coffee to so good advantage as the producers of Arbuckles' Coffee. No other coffee is cleaned, roasted, or blended with such great care and skill. When you buy Arbuckles' you get better quality and greater value than you can get in any other coffee at anywhere near the same price.

You also get with each package a definite part in some useful article.
Full information with each package.
